

Guidelines for using FirstAidWeb Inc. Online Training

The California Organized Camp Regulations (California Code of Regulations, Title 17, Section 30751) requires adult volunteers at camp to be “trained in principles of first aid and cardiopulmonary resuscitation.” One method of accomplishing this training is to complete an online course using the directions below. This training needs to be completed before camp begins. You should be able to complete the entire process in less than an hour.

Please go to the following website: <http://www.firstaidweb.com>
Start with the CPR Course first. Click on this icon:

At the end of each section is quiz. This will help you gauge how you are doing. After completing the three CPR sections (adult, child, infant) a final quiz of 8 questions is presented and after supplying your answers click on "Get Grade".

Your score MUST be 87.5% or higher in order to pass.

Please print the CPR quiz results page, sign it, date it and return it to your local 4-H office or Camp Director. (See example below)
